

Berlin Program for Advanced German and European Studies

Fellows 1995 - 1996, 10th Cohort

Elizabeth Boggs history Harvard University	Law, Economy and Society in Hamburg and Berlin: A Legal History of Business Associations in Germany, 1861-1914
Mark Cassell political science University of Wisconsin, Madison	Governance Arrangement and the Regulations of Property Rights: A Study of the US' Resolution Trust Corporation and Germany's Treuhandanstalt
Rita Chin history University of California at Berkeley	The Construction of Identities in the Works of Turkish-German Writers and Film Directors, 1969-89
Philip Gorski sociology University of California at Berkeley	Disciplinary Revolution: Calvinism and the State
Robin Hodess international relations Cambridge University	Europe in the News: A Comparative Study of the Media's Role in European Integration in Britain and Germany, 1985-91
H. Glenn Penny history University of Illinois	Germans' Others and Other Germans: German Ethnographic Museums and the Formation of German National and Cultural Identities, 1870-1914
Kari Robinson anthropology University of Chicago	Coming to Terms: Negotiating a New Abortion Law in Unified Germany
Despina Stratigakos art history Bryn Mawr College	Women Architects in Germany, 1900-1945
Julie Stubbs history University of Michigan	Building the Perfect Woman: Science and Sex Reform in the Weimar Republic
Patricia Szobar history Rutgers University	Enforcing Racial Policy: The "Race Defilement" Trials in Nazi Germany