Course title: Intercultural Internship Seminar

Course number: FU-BEST IS1

Language of instruction: English

Contact hours: 16

ECTS-Credits: 10 (in combination with full-time internship)

U.S. semester credits: 6 (in combination with full-time internship)

Course description

This seminar is designed to complement your FU-BEST Internship. In weekly sessions, you will have the opportunity to develop your career profile and focus on getting the most out of your internship experience. Examine and solidify your expectations and goals for the internship, analyse your individual strengths and weaknesses, and develop new skills and methods to reflect on your internship experience from a personal, professional, and practical perspective.

Through the exploration of your experiences together with your instructor you will take a deeper look at differences and similarities between workplace culture and behavioural expectations in your country of origin and in Germany.

A variety of career-based topics will be covered in the seminar, including “Workplace Communication”, “Networking”, and “Career Roadmap”. This seminar will assist you on the path to career success, help you to determine what comes next, and formulate strategies for the future.
