Get your career started @ Allianz!

Allianz Careers Day for financial talents

Are you a top student working towards a business, economics, mathematics or physics degree, or a degree in a similar subject? Are you already in advanced stages of your master's degree/PhD, or have you recently graduated? Are you interested in the world of finance and global investments? And do you want to find out more about career opportunities at Germany's biggest insurer? Then why not apply for the Allianz Careers Day in Stuttgart?

The main details:

Where: Allianz Stuttgart

When: November 30, 2015

We will pay your travel expenses.

What to expect:

You will have the opportunity to talk directly to our experts and specialists from the fields of investment management, actuarial and product development to find out about the varied positions, entry-level and development opportunities on offer and to learn more about Allianz as an employer.

You can look forward to:

- An interesting insight into our Stuttgart office and information about career opportunities at Allianz Investment Management SE and Allianz Lebensversicherungs-AG
- Interactive discussions on current topics and challenges that form part of the day-to-day work in the area of investment management
- Networking with the Allianz Careers team, investment management specialists and actuaries at a group lunch and get-together

Apply for the event no later than October 25 by sending your CV and references to Yasmin Flach (yasmin.flach@allianz.de)
