

Interested in Career Opportunities at The WORLD BANK?

You are invited to an Event Offered by its Human Resources Team

on:

Thursday, 22.01.2015
13.30 pm – 14.30 pm

at:

Universität Potsdam,
Campus Griebnitzsee
August-Bebel-Str. 89
Lecture Building 6, Room S 24

with:

The World Bank Human Resources Team, Istanbul
Prof. Dr. Harald Fuhr, Chair of International Politics, Universität Potsdam

what:

The objective is to inform interested students about the different recruitment programs and opportunities at The World Bank.

The event is a chance for students to receive career advice and have their questions answered by members of The World Bank human resources team to better understand what types of skills and experience The World Bank is looking for.

The Human Resources team hopes to be able to provide students with information that they may not easily be able to find answers to on their own or through our website.

There will be a presentation followed by a question and answer period.

For further questions please contact:

Coordination Office Joint Master International Relations, FU Berlin, masterib@zedat.fu-berlin.de, phone: 030-838 53091