Career Development at Dahlem Research School

- part of the Professional Development Program (PDP)
- covers academic and non-academic careers alike
- three sections:
 - “Exploring Options”
 - “Applying for Jobs and Grants”
 - “Training for the Job”
- special programs within this last section:
 - “DREAM” (mentoring for female Ph.D. candidates)
 - “DRS Pro Business” (profile analysis & business training for private or public-sector careers)
 - “DRS Pro Transfer” (market-to-research training & development of business models)
- certificate programs, free-of-charge for members of Freie Universität Berlin
- collaborations with Profund Innovation (start-up support) and the Faculty of Economics
- part of the ongoing “Entrepreneurial Network University” strategy of Freie Universität and Charité

DREAM: Dahlem Research Mentoring

- Mentoring program for female doctoral candidates
- Duration: 1 year
- 15 mentees
- Program is currently in its fifth year
- Goals of the DREAM mentoring program:
 - Supporting female researchers in planning their next career steps after finishing their doctorates
 - Identification of career options inside and outside of academia
- 1:1-mentoring
- The mentors have extensive work experience and come from various professional fields
- Many mentors are alumni of Freie Universität Berlin
- Mandatory framework program in addition to the 1:1-mentoring sessions
