

International Graduate Debate, 24-26 June 2019

Universidade Católica Portuguesa – The Europaeum

THE TRANSATLANTIC ALLIANCE: 70 YEARS AFTER THE FOUNDING OF NATO, 30 YEARS AFTER THE FALL OF THE BERLIN WALL

The Institute for Political Studies of the Catholic University of Portugal is hosting its annual major international summer school and conference in Lisbon at the end of June, bringing together policy-makers and academics from the US, UK, Portugal and the rest of Europe.

Key note speakers include Professor Jan Wouters (KU Leuven), others to be confirmed

The motion to be debated will be: ‘Unless the Transatlantic alliance is properly repaired and refreshed, our new global order may be imperiled?’

This will be in the form of a public Oxford Union-style event led by Europaeum graduate students and will involve four research graduates, each speaking for and against the given proposition, with expert commentators a hand, and a final open vote on the proposition taken.

Accommodation, travel and board (including three special conference dinners) for this three-day conference, based on the Lisbon coast, will be covered for the selected graduates. Successful applicants are expected to book their own travel and be reimbursed on the first day of the conference.

Students currently enrolled on master's or PhD courses at a Europaeum member university can apply.

DEADLINE 12th May 2019. All enquiries: euroinfo@europaeum.ox.ac.uk
