Article 3: Student Status

The trainee will retain his/her status as registered student at the university for the whole duration of the internship at the hosting institution, provided that he/she observes all deadlines for re-registration and reporting to the university as well timely payment of fees.

Article 4: Insurance

Insurance issues are the sole responsibility of the trainee.

Neither the university nor the hosting institution are liable in the case of an accident. This agreement does not constitute any basis for third party claims between the hosting institution and the university.

Article 5: Obligations of the Trainee

During the internship, the trainee must follow the rules and regulations of the hosting institution, particularly concerning its normal working hours, code of conduct, safety practices and rules of confidentiality.

Article 6: Obligations of the Hosting Institution

Upon completion of the internship, the hosting institution will issue a qualified letter of reference to the trainee.

Article 7: Right of Termination

Both, the hosting enterprise and the trainee have the right to terminate the internship for cause; e.g. in case any of the regulations laid down in this agreement have been violated or cannot be fulfilled.

In case of premature termination of the internship, the representative of the university should be informed about the reasons immediately.
