

APPLYING FOR A RESIDENCE PERMIT

All students with a non-EU and non-EFTA (Andorra, Iceland, Liechtenstein, Norway) citizenship have to apply for a residence permit as soon as possible or at least eight weeks before their visa expires or your 90-day period (in case you entered Germany without a visa*) at the Foreigners' Office (Ausländerbehörde) in Berlin.

Applying directly at LABO – Foreigners' Office (Ausländerbehörde)

You may arrange an appointment with the Foreigners' Office (Ausländerbehörde) online at the following address: <http://tinyurl.com/labo-termin>. Please note that online appointments are usually booked out months in advance! You may also submit your application at the Foreigners' Office (Ausländerbehörde) without arranging an appointment. Their office is located here:

<https://www.berlin.de/stadtplan/verwaltung/auslaenderbehoerde-berlin-standort-keplerstr/> and their office hours are: Mon, Tue 07:00-14:00 and Thu 10:00-18:00. Please arrive early and expect very long waiting times if you decide to go there without an appointment.

Applying through the FU Pass-Service

In case you need a permit you also have the possibility of applying for a residence permit via the international office of the university. The following documents are generally required to submit an application at our office:

<input type="checkbox"/>	application form ( Antrag auf Erteilung eines Aufenthaltstitels / Antrag auf einen befristeten Aufenthaltstitel ) On request we can send you this form via email. Our email-address is pass-service@fu-berlin.de
<input type="checkbox"/>	valid passport containing at least two empty pages
<input type="checkbox"/>	invitation letter, acceptance letter or certificate of enrollment ( Immatrikulationsbescheinigung ) If you are enrolled, you can download and print your enrollment certificate online at http://studium.fu-berlin.de (login required).
<input type="checkbox"/>	registration certificate ( Anmeldebescheinigung ) from any local city hall ( Bürgeramt ) in Berlin It is absolutely necessary that you are registered with the local authorities in Berlin! Unfortunately we cannot help you if you reside outside of Berlin.
<input type="checkbox"/>	proof of health insurance for the whole intended period of stay A German statutory health insurance policy is highly recommended. If you have a foreign insurance policy, then the conditions have to correspond strictly to those of the German statutory health insurance. Travel health insurance or an exempt from the German insurance are generally not sufficient to apply for a residence permit. Exceptions are possible in certain cases – please inquire at the FU Pass-Service.
<input type="checkbox"/>	proof of sufficient financial means (at least 853,- € per month/person, from the age of 30 at least 936,- € per month/person) e. g.      letter of award OR frozen account in your name OR official statement of obligation ( Verpflichtungserklärung ) from the person supporting you financially

Please note that further documents are necessary for spouses (marriage certificate) and children (birth certificate as well as school certificate if the child is school-aged) also a contract of the apartment. A filled out application form is required for each member of your family. All the documents have to be in German or English, otherwise a certified translation is necessary.

A personal visit to the Foreigners' Office (Ausländerbehörde) is necessary for every applicant. During the interview, the fingerprint must be given, the processing fee paid and the authorization for the collection signed.

The processing of applications submitted at our office can take between 7 and 12 weeks depending on the workload of the Ausländerbehörde. The fee of the Ausländerbehörde can vary between 93 € and 100 € per application.
