

Berlin Program for Advanced German and European Studies

Fellows 1989 - 1990, 4th Cohort

Bernard Bellon (postdoc)
history
Georgia Institute of Technology

Forced Labor Regimes in German Industry, 1939-1945

John Brown (postdoc) economics
Clark University

Technology, Organizational Structure and Competitiveness: The Case of German Cotton Textiles, 1875-1914

Susan Crane
history
University of Chicago

Collections and Historical Consciousness: The Emergence of New Forms of Memory and Consciousness in Nineteenth-Century Germany

Yule Heibel
art history
Harvard University

Dialectic of Evacuation and Restoration of Modernism: German Abstract Painting in the 1940s and Early 1950s

Douglas Klusmeyer
history
Stanford University

Between Church and State: Prussian Martial Law from the German Enlightenment to the Civil Code of 1900

David T. Murphy
history
University of Illinois at Urbana

Geopolitics and the German Imagination: Culture, Illusion and German Foreign Policy, 1924-1934

Yasemin Soysal
sociology
Stanford University

Limits of Citizenship: Guestworkers in the Contemporary Nation-State System

Brigitte Young (postdoc) political science University of Wisconsin at Madison

State Structures and Capacities and the Development of Agricultural Institutions in the 1930s: Comparison of the American Agricultural Adjustment Administration and the German Reich Food Corporation