

Berlin Program for Advanced German and European Studies

Fellows 1993 - 1994, 8th Cohort

- Keith Anderton
history
Harvard University
The Limits of Science: A Social, Political, and Moral Agenda for Epistemology in Bismarck's Germany, 1870-90
- Brigid Doherty
art history
University of California at Berkeley
Gender, Modernity, and Artistic Identity in Berlin Dada, 1918-25
- Barbara T. Donovan
political science
Georgetown University
The Institutionalization of Political Parties in Germany's New States
- Daniel V. Friedhelm
political science
Yale University
Mid-Level and Regional Officials in Regime Collapse: The Peaceful East German Revolution of 1989-90
- Michael B. Gross
history
Brown University
Protestantism and the Working Class in Berlin, 1871-1914
- Manik T. Hinchey
political science
Yale University
The New Right in the New Europe
- Katherine H. Pence
history
University of Michigan
Cultures of Consumption and the Construction of Postwar East and West German Gendered Identities, 1948-61
- David W. Scialdone
sociology
Columbia University
Liberal Businessmen in Imperial Russia and Germany - Ideology, Identity, and Interest
- Patricia R. Stokes
history
Cornell University
The Experiences of Childbirth and Pregnancy in Germany, 1913-33
- Roland W. Strobel
architectural history University of Southern California
Ideology, Urban Planning, and the Built Form: Comparing the Physical Landscapes of Planning Processes of East and West Berlin's Urban Planning Programs, 1945-89
- Timothy R. Vogt
history
University of California at Davis Denazification in Land Brandenburg under Soviet Occupation, 1945-49