

BERLIN PROGRAM

for Advanced German & European Studies

Forschungskolloquium im Sommersemester 2008

Leitung: Prof. Dr. Konrad Jarausch, Dept. of History, UNC Chapel Hill
Prof. Dr. Gabriele Metzler, Institut für Geschichtswissenschaften, HU Berlin

Ort: Seminarraum, Garystr. 45, 14195 Berlin

Zeit: dienstags, 16–18 Uhr

Änderungen vorbehalten

- | | |
|---------------------------|---|
| 15.04.08 | Vorstellung der Stipendiat*innen |
| 28.04.08
14 Uhr | Stadtspaziergang in Marzahn
Treffpunkt vor dem Bezirksmuseum Marzahn-Hellersdorf |
| 29.04.08 | Eli Rubin, Western Michigan University, Department of History
Berlin-Marzahn: Die Geschichte eines Aufbaus und Grundriss einer neuen Theorie der Erinnerung |
| 13.05.08 | Richard N. Lutjens, Jr., Northwestern University, Department of History
Hidden Experiences: Jews in Hiding in Nazi Germany |
| 27.05.08 | Freyja Hartzell, Yale University, Department of Art History
Delight in Sachlichkeit: The Thingliness of Things in Munich and Berlin, 1890–1930 |
| 10.06.08 | Aeleah Soine, University of Minnesota, Twin Cities, Department of History
From the Cradle to the Council: German Women and their Aspirations for a Transnational Nursing Profession, 1836–1918 |
| 24.06.08 | Maya Barzilai, University of California, Berkeley, Department of Comparative Literature
Resurrections of the Golem of Prague: An Intercultural and Intermedial Study of World War I and Post-War Germany |
| 08.07.08 | Alexandra Monchick, Harvard University, Department of Musicology
The Influence of Silent Film on Zeitoper in the Weimar Republic |