

BERLIN PROGRAM

for Advanced German & European Studies

Forschungskolloquium im Sommersemester 2013

Leitung: Prof. Dr. Harald Wenzel, John F. Kennedy-Institut für Nordamerikastudien, Freie Universität Berlin

Ort: Seminarraum Ko6, Garystr. 45, 14195 Berlin

Zeit: mittwochs, 16–18 Uhr (Abweichungen siehe unten)

Änderungen vorbehalten

10.04.13 Film im Gespräch

24.04.13 Julie Ault, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, History
A Different Shade of Green: Environmental Activism under East German Dictatorship, 1980–1990

08.05.13 Kristen Loveland, Harvard University, History
Thinking the Future Human: Debates on the Ethics of Diagnostic Reproductive Technologies in Germany, 1946–2001

15.05.13 Nick Sveholm, Indiana University, Bloomington, History
Blut ohne Boden: Diaspora Activism and Interwar Romania's German-Speaking Minorities

05.06.13 Eric Savoth, University of California, Berkeley, German Literature
Managing Population, Managing the Self: Literature and Rationalization in Germany between 1850 and 1900

19.06.13 Lauren Flood, Columbia University, Ethnomusicology
Circuit-Bent Berlin: The Construction & Circulation of DIY Music Technology

20.–21.06.13 Summer Workshop (Seminarzentrum L 115)
Germany Looks East

26.06.13 John Eicher, University of Iowa, History
'Wise as Serpents, Innocent as Doves': Mennonite Migrations during the Interwar Years

03.07.13 GSA Distinguished Lecture 2014 (Seminarzentrum L 115)
18 Uhr David Barclay, Kalamazoo College & GSA
Old Glory und Berliner Bär: Die USA und West-Berlin 1948–1994

10.07.13 Matthew Valji, University of California, San Diego, History
Nazi Propaganda Cartography: Suggestive Maps and the Domination of Space