

Call for Applications: Global Politics Summer School China 2017

CHINA AND EUROPE IN A WORLD OF CHANGE: CHINESE AND EUROPEAN PERSPECTIVES

August 20 – September 1, 2017 in Shanghai

(session period: August 21 –31)

ORGANIZED BY

Center for Global Politics (CGP) of Freie Universität Berlin (FUB), in cooperation with the School of International Relations and Public Affairs (SIRPA) of Fudan University Shanghai.

CURRICULUM

This intensive short-term program will provide excellent students with an insight into European and Chinese perspectives on the role of Europe and China in Global Politics. Political and social expectations, arising from their roles as global players, will be analyzed within the framework of different theoretical concepts. The modules will provide tools for a deeper understanding of the new global landscape. The exchange of views and ideas will equally include input from German and Chinese academics and students. We therefore invite students from China, Germany and other countries to apply for the best established German-Chinese Summer Program in International Relations.
