

Postdoc Program between the Freie Universität Berlin (FUB) and the China Scholarship Council (CSC)

Open Postdoc position at FUB for CSC scholarship candidates 2016

Please note: the postdoc position is only offered to Chinese who graduated with a PhD degree from a Chinese university.

Department/Institute:	Faculty of Law
Subject area:	Private Law Theory
Professor / Research Group:	Prof. Dr. Bertram Lomfeld
Number of open Postdoc positions:	1
Project title:	Politics of Private Law / Civil Procedure Law

Postdoc Project description:

The project aims to analyse the basic notions of private law on a comparative basis. The comparative deconstruction of fundamental legal structures should reveal political backgrounds as well as possible common ('universal') cores of private law. The legal design of basic private law institutions shapes social and economic cooperation. The 'Politics of Private Law' wants to sketch a political economy or political philosophy of private law institutions.

Chinese project participants should conduct a comparative and/or interdisciplinary research on one of the following core institution of Chinese private law: property, contract, tort, corporation, bankruptcy or civil procedure law. The postdoc researcher pursues his/her research project independently, but will present and discuss his/her results and progresses regularly. One research goal might be a (joined) publication in a major Chinese, German and/or international journal. The application should enclose a project proposal (approximately 1000 words).

Language requirements:

The working language could be English or German.

- English: IELTS 6,5 or TOEFL 95 ibt.
- German: Test DaF 16 or DSH 2

Academic requirements:

- Excellent law degree
- Supplementary degree or otherwise verifiable knowledge and experience in either comparative law, legal theory or a social science discipline (e.g. economics, sociology, philosophy, politics)
