

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

FOR MA AND PHD STUDENTS FROM FREIE UNIVERSITÄT BERLIN

Due to the aid of a DAAD-grant, the Dahlem Humanities Center of Freie Universität Berlin has established the Thematic Network Principles of Cultural Dynamics (PCD) and is pleased to announce:

5 Global Humanities Junior Fellowships

for MA or PhD students from Freie Universität Berlin, working on questions related to the network's topic. These fellowships will enable Fellows to conduct research at one of the PCD network's partner institutions for four to six months in 2016. These institutions are as follows:

- Harvard University, Mahindra Humanities Center
- The Hebrew University of Jerusalem, Faculty of Humanities
- The Chinese University of Hong Kong, Research Institute for the Humanities
- The Johns Hopkins University, Humanities Center
- École des Hautes Études en Sciences Sociales (EHESS), Paris.

Fellows are obliged to participate in the PCD network's Global Humanities Campus, consisting of a two-week summer school and a workshop taking place in Berlin in the summer (July 25 – August 7, 2016). They may schedule their research stays abroad at a time of their choosing, so long as they are able to fulfill their mandatory participation in the Global Humanities Campus. Fellows will receive a lump sum for travel purposes, as well as a monthly subsidy toward accommodation expenses, both administered by the PCD-network. The PCD-network will also assist fellows in preparing their stay.

For further information, please refer to the network's website (<http://www.fu-berlin.de/principles-cultural-dynamics>) or contact the program coordinator Stephanie Röwe (pcd@fu-berlin.de). Applicants should be prepared to submit the following documents for consideration:

1. CV
2. Outline of their research project (not to exceed one page)
3. Personal statement (2-3 pages), detailing their scholarly interest in the partner institution of their choice
4. Dates of their intended stay abroad
5. A copy of their latest degree
6. Proof (e.g. in the form of an email exchange) that the professor with whom the applicant wishes to work at the partner institution ('mentor') is willing to supervise the applicant during his or her research stay

Application materials should be submitted in English, and emailed—as one document—to pcd@fu-berlin.de by November 30, 2015.
