Published in April 2017, the Routledge Handbook of Environmental Policy in China focuses on the environmental challenges of China's rapidly growing economy and provides a comprehensive overview of the policies developed to address the environmental crisis. Leading scholars and practitioners examine China's environmental governance from an interdisciplinary perspective. A must read for anyone who wants to be brought up-to-date on the environmental, climate and sustainability policies in China.

Speakers:

- Eva Sternfeld (book editor) "Evolution of environmental policy in China"
- Genia Kostka (Professor of Chinese Politics at Freie Universität Berlin) "China's local environmental politics"
- Anna L. Ahlers (Associate Professor of Modern Chinese Society and Politics at University of Oslo) "Air pollution: How will China win its self-declared war against it?"
