Marie-S.-Curie Individual Fellowships 2019: Applying with FU Berlin

Team Research Funding and Information

Target Group

- You want to apply for a Marie-S.-Curie Individual Fellowship with Freie Universität Berlin?
- You are already in touch with one of our professors who is willing to become your supervisor?
- You have a PhD/doctorate?
- You did not live or work in Germany for more than 12 months during the last 3 years by September 11th 2019?

Then we cordially invite you to this year's webinar in order to prepare your Marie-S.-Curie proposal with FU Berlin!

Content

The webinar will focus on the following topics:

- General information on the Marie-S.-Curie program (aims, funding modalities, time frame).
- Eligibility conditions (mobility rule, research experience).
- Where can I find all relevant documents and information?
- How does the proposal look like (structure, length, attachments)?
- What are the evaluation criteria?
- How is the review process organized?
- How does the electronic submission system work?
- Dos & Don'ts for a successful application.
- What kind of support does FU offer for my application and during the project phase?

You will have the opportunity for general questions during the webinar. Detailed, case-specific issues should be discussed with your responsible pre-award grant manager after the webinar via phone, Skype or e-mail (for contact information click here).

Time Monday, May 27 2019, 14.00 – 16.00 h (sharp)
