

2nd Workshop: Your Postdoc Career in Germany - Opportunities for Outstanding Scientists

at Bibliotheca Alexandrina, Alexandria, Egypt

Application deadline is Monday, 10 February 2020

The Cairo Liaison Offices of Freie Universität Berlin (FU Berlin) and Technical University Munich (TUM) in cooperation with Bibliotheca Alexandrina (BA) through the Center for Special Studies and Programs (CSSP), the Alexander von Humboldt Foundation (AvH), the Orient-Institut Beirut, the Cairo Liaison Offices of Philipps-Universität Marburg and the Technical University Berlin, as well as the German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD) are pleased to invite prospective postdoc researchers to participate in the upcoming workshop for outstanding scientists. The workshop will take place on Tuesday, 31 March 2020, at Bibliotheca Alexandrina, Alexandria, Egypt.

If you are an outstanding postdoc scholar from any discipline (e.g. with publications in selected international journals; practical experience in projects; scientific awards; etc.) and (have) received your PhD degree within the past 8 years, we invite you to apply for this workshop! Women and persons with disabilities are explicitly encouraged.

You will receive first-hand information about the funding opportunities of the participating institutions and the programs and services each offers to excellent postdoc scholars. In addition, you will gain an insight on pursuing postdoc research in Germany in an international and competitive system. Beside benefitting from the remarkable network platform, the selected participants will also receive the opportunity to discuss with Alumni who have travelled to Germany before, and successfully conducted research there.

Application deadline is Monday, 10 February 2020. Apply now through one of the following links as your postdoc career in Germany might start here!
