Lastly, you receive 10 days of holiday for a 6 month internship.

Pembroke, Malta:

Compensation: €400 per month

Benefits: €300 travel stipend for flights and Atlas t-shirts/hoodies as uniforms. 10 days of holiday for a 6 month internship.

Full time internships of 40 hours per week, scheduled Monday through Sunday (the intern will work 40 hours over 5 days and will get 2 days off during the week). The intern is expected to work on weekends. The schedule changes every week, and the manager informs the interns of their upcoming schedule every Thursday. The school opens Monday to Friday during the day, and social programme activities usually take place during the afternoons, evenings and during the weekends. Social programme activities are included in your working hours. Check-ins and check-outs at the residence occur on weekends.

For most internships we first must confirm the candidates' availability and then we would schedule an online interview with HR; for some departments there is also a meeting with the department manager.
