

fu:binar on Master's Programs at Freie Universität Berlin

27.10.2025 | 15:00 hrs. | Berlin time | online

Target Group

The target group of the webinar are students of all courses and specialties who are acquiring higher education, i.e. studying in specialist, bachelor's or master's programs, as well as speaking German and/or English and interested in continuing their studies in Germany.

Content and Purpose

The fu:binar focuses on post-graduate study programs at Freie Universität Berlin. Types of master's programs and their admission requirements including language skills, application deadlines, selection criteria and reliable sources of information will be presented.

In the second part of the fu:binar, you will be given the opportunity to ask all questions related to studying in a master's program in Berlin.

Speaker

Tobias Stüdemann, Director Liaison office Eastern Europe of Freie Universität Berlin

Working language: English.

Registration

By QR code or through the website:

www.fu-berlin.de/easterneurope