The prize of Freie Universität Berlin is given in recognition of personal endeavor or excellent measures and project work in the areas of women's advancement or gender studies.

Women of any status group can apply by themselves or be recommended by others.

The prize, worth 15,000 euros, is one of Germany's largest monetary prizes for the promotion of women.

Applications and suggestions are to be submitted by Monday, March 16, 2015 at the speaker of the Women's Council, PD Dr. Martha Zapata Galindo, LAI, Rüdeshheimer Str. 54 – 56, 14197 Berlin, Germany.

The prize will be awarded by the president in July 2015 upon recommendation by the Central Women's Council of Freie Universität. Further information is available at the gender equality officer of your department or institute, at the chief gender equality officer (www.fu-berlin.de/frauenbeauftragte) and at www.fu-berlin.de/mvb.
