

Kyoto University International Education Program (KUINEP)

Kyoto University International Education Program (KUINEP) provides undergraduate level lectures in English to our partner university students as well as Kyoto University students. The program is open only to undergraduate students. KUINEP students are required to take at least six courses each semester mainly from KUINEP courses offered by the Institute for Liberal Arts and Sciences taught in English and additionally from courses offered by Faculties with the lecturer's permission. Students are affiliated to one of undergraduate faculties as Special Auditor.

Tuitions

Based on the student exchange agreement, students will be exempted from examination fee, matriculation fee and tuition fee at Kyoto University.

Scholarship

A limited number of scholarships are available through Japan Student Services Organization (JASSO). JASSO is a government-sponsored non-profit organization to promote international student exchange. Recipients will be selected by Kyoto University based on their academic record and financial condition. Those who 1) will receive any other financial support more than 80,000 yen per month or 2) will not stay in Japan with "Student Visa Status" are not eligible for it. For Example, those who have Japanese Nationality/Permanent Residency are come under 2). JASSO Scholarship is a monthly stipend of 80,000 yen.

Restrictions of Choosing Courses

Exchange students who are enrolled in an undergraduate faculty or Institute for Liberal Arts and Sciences of Kyoto University can take courses offered by undergraduate faculties including ones they are not enrolled in and by Institute for Liberal Arts and Sciences, but cannot take any courses offered by graduate schools.

There are courses which are not open to exchange students and some courses open to exchange students might also implement enrollment restrictions. Therefore exchange students are strongly advised to be as flexible as possible in their course selection.

What courses are designed for KUINEP

KUINEP students are required to take at least six courses each semester mainly from KUINEP courses (Liberal Arts and Sciences courses) taught in English and additionally from courses offered by Faculties with the lecturer's permission. Students' grades are reported at the end of each semester. The syllabi of 2018 Liberal Arts and Sciences courses can be found at:

<http://www.z.k.kyoto-u.ac.jp/download/introduction/syllabus.pdf?1446706638>

( The syllabi of 2019 is available at end of March, 2019)

- The syllabi of 2019 are subject to change.
- Some courses may have restrictions for registration such as number of students.

- There are courses not available for exchange students.

Japanese Language Studies

KUINEP Program students are eligible to take Japanese language courses offered by the Institute for Liberal Arts and Sciences. These consist of credited courses and non-credited courses. Evaluation for credited Japanese language courses will be recorded in the official transcript and two official credits will be conferred for each course.

Credited Japanese language classes in the Liberal Arts and Science curriculum for KUINEP and GEA students (excluding “GESR”). Japanese language classes for exchange students \(including KUINEP students\) | Institute for Liberal Arts and Sciences, Kyoto University